

JOURNALISM EXPERIENCE

Law360

September 2020 to Present

Senior Graphics Editor – Produce longform and quick-turnaround interactive graphics for a major legal news service. Collaborate with reporters, editors and researchers to refine graphics ideas for stories and assist with data analysis and cleaning. Special focus on graphics for Law360 Pulse legal industry surveys. Work on site layout and image management.

Newmark Graduate School of Journalism at CUNY

August 2025 to Present

Teaching Assistant – Tutor students on JavaScript and Svelte for an intro-level Coding The News course as they learn to build webpages and interactive features. Advise students as they build webpages for originally reported final projects.

CNBC

October 2019 to July 2020

Data Reporter, Grow – Reported data-driven stories for Grow, a personal finance blog. Areas of coverage included real estate, housing, family finance and budgeting, the financial impacts of Covid-19, retirement, investing and car buying.

Cannabis Wire

June 2018 to February 2019

Freelance Developer – Build internal reporting tools and provide data-oriented stories for an online startup covering cannabis policy and economics in the U.S. and around the world. Tools allow editors to monitor cannabis-related legislation and government rules, as well as social media statements from public officials, in real time.

City & State

January 2018 to May 2018

Data Intern/Freelance Contributor – Reported on data-oriented political stories in city and state governments, focusing on public pension fund investment, congestion pricing, New York state's budget, lobbying, and water tank inspections. Scraped and analyzed government databases. Assisted staffers with data-related story elements.

DATA AND WEB DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS (MORE AT GITHUB.COM/FAKEBENJAY AND BENJAYINGLY.COM)Trump's Legal Battles: <https://www.law360.com/trump-legal-challenges>

- Public-facing database feature, tracking lawsuits against the second Trump administration's actions and executive orders.
- First built with a group of reporters after Trump's return to office, we published within a month of the inauguration, and have been tracking cases since. As of August 2026, we've tracked over 560 cases, and still update several times each week.
- Database is searchable and filterable by issue type, specific executive actions and orders, and by case and ruling status.

Wall Street's Single-Family Home Grab, Phoenix: <https://www.law360.com/real-estate-authority/articles/1531385>

- Visualized all corporate-owned single-family rentals in Phoenix based on deep analysis of public real estate records.
- Led to three follow-up packages with interactive graphics, covering corporate SFR evictions and adjudications in Phoenix.

NYC Evictions Creep Up As Housing Courts Get Busier: <https://www.law360.com/articles/1513877>

- Feature on evictions in New York City as Covid-era tenant protections expired. Evictions slowly but steadily rose after the statewide eviction moratorium lapsed, but Emergency Rental Assistance Program applicants still enjoy some protections.
- Worked with reporter to analyze executed eviction warrant data from NYC's Department of Investigation, develop a methodology for filtering evictions with multiple warrants, and visualize evictions and case stats over time and by ZIP code.
